

CHEDRO III MEMORANDUM
No. 34 s. 2018

FOR: Presidents/Heads of Public and Private Higher Education Institutions

SUBJECT: CHED Modified Second Generation General Education Faculty Training

DATE: March 21, 2018

This Office hereby endorses the Modified Second Generation General Education Faculty Training to be conducted and facilitated by the Wesleyan University Philippines, based in Cabanatuan City, Nueva Ecija. The theme of the training is: "Recognize, Shape, and Disseminate Best Practices in the New General Education Curriculum."

This training program aims to accomplish the following objectives: 1.) to orient faculty-participants on the philosophy of liberal education, away from the strictly disciplinal and remedial thrust of the old GE courses, 2.) to enable the faculty-participants to teach the interdisciplinary GE core courses using the new materials; and 3.) to recognize, shape and disseminate best practices in general education.

Target participants are the General Education instructors/professors in the Region to attend the said Faculty Training on the following courses:

Understanding the Self Ethics Purposive Communication Art Appreciation (Training Schedule: May 29-31, 2018)

A registration fee of P4, 000.00 will be charged to defray the cost of the 3-day training since no CHED funds are available at the moment. Registration fee will cover the honorarium for the trainers, meals and snacks, certificate and training kit.

It is advised that HEIs send at least one or more participants per GE course. Participants are likewise advised to communicate their immediate confirmation due to limited slots available per course.

For additional inquiries, please contact the focal person for this training, Dr. Michael P. Fronda, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences of Wesleyan University Philippines. He can be contacted at telephone numbers: (044)-463-2074.
