TO : Presidents/Heads of State Universities /Colleges and
Local Colleges and Universities (LUCs)

SUBJECT : Conference on "Building a Skilled Workforce: Access, Equity and Inclusiveness through Local Community College"

DATE : October 1, 2018

X-----X

The Commission on Higher Education in coordination with the Embassy of Canada in the Philippines and Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Pasig will be conducting a conference on "Building a Skilled Workforce: Access, Equity and Inclusiveness through Local Community Colleges" at the Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng Pasig, Alcalde Jose St., Kapasigan, Pasig City on October 11-12, 2018.

The conference aims to:

- 1) Increase awareness of Canada's community college model/system;
- 2) Highlight the industry-academe (i.e. colleges and institutes) collaboration in Canada;
- 3) Inform Philippine institutions of role of Colleges and Institutes Canada (CICan) and capabilities of its members; and
- 4) Highlight how the community college model contributes to the development of a skilled workforce, education of indigenous people, among others.

Expected participants are academic personnel i.e. Vice President for Academic Affairs or head of a research study of LUCs and SUCs. Interested participants are requested to register online through <https://bit.ly/2MniTsX>. Please complete the registration on or before October 5, 2018.

For more information, please contact CHED-International Affairs Officer at telephone no. (02) 441-0750.
