The Commission on Higher Education launched on 9 July 2020 the CHED HiEd Bayanihan initiative, in partnership with some universities who committed to provide free webinars and online seminars/training on flexible learning for faculty members of other higher education institutions (HEIs) in the country. The project advocates the “Bayanihan” spirit through a virtual, free, cooperative learning environment for capacity building and sharing of educational resources among the HEIs.

Relative to this, the CHEDRO III, in collaboration with the Region III Higher Education Consortium (R3HEC), is launching its R3HiEd Bayanihan, being one of the priority projects on Instructions, identified in the Regional Higher Education Action Plan (RHEAP). The webinars and online seminars/training for faculty professional development will be held for free from September 2020 onwards to assist HEIs in adopting to the new normal and digital transformation for the implementation of flexible learning. Attached is the September 2020 R3HiEd Bayanihan Calendar of topic offerings by partner HEIs in the region and experts in the topic area for your reference.
