DATE : 28 February 2024

The Commission on Higher Education hereby informs all interested parties of the invitation from the Association of Universities in Asia and the Pacific (AUAP) to participate in the AUAP-PIM 9th Global Leadership Program which will be held in Nonthaburi, Bangkok, Ayuthaya, and Pattaya City, Thailand from 11 to 17 August 2024.

The program extends an opportunity to 60 students from AUAP Member and Non Members institutions to participate in a seven-day, challenging extra-curricular initiative, encompassing the Theme "Rethink, Relearn, Reskill".

This is designed for students seeking healthy personal growth within a comprehensive mindset environment, exploring how student leadership can address global challenges and drive change. Talks and discussions will be conducted in English and will delve into topics such as innovative skills, entrepreneurship, peace, career development, cultural diversity, intercultural communication, and key challenges in global societies.

The program will feature various extra-curricular activities, engaging students in leadership assignments and providing an avenue to explore Thai culture. Activities include a creativity contest introduction, entrepreneurial engagement, group presentations, and sightseeing. The program's closing ceremony will allow students to showcase their performances and receive certificates for program completion.

Interested students may register until 30 June 2024 through this link <https://forms.gle/W7ILVx48Bt5igWgUA>.

Registration fees will cover local hotels on 11th to 16th, meals, pick up and send off to the airport, study tours.

Dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
